

1. With regards to PCR testing, has the amplification and/or cycle threshold ever been increased and/or reduced since the start of the Covid pandemic, and if so on which date(s)? No
2. Has the level at which a test is deemed to be "positive" ever been increased and/or decreased since the start of the Covid pandemic, and if so on which date(s)? No
3. If the above information is not available, where can it be found? Not applicable